Gülsin Onay began playing the piano at the age of three, and gave her first public recital on Turkish Radio when she was six. With the aid of a special state scholarship she studied with Ahmed Adnan Saygun and Mithat Fenmen, and then in Paris, where her teachers include Pierre Sancan, Monique Haas and Nadia Boulanger. She graduated from the Paris

Conservatoire at the age of 16, winning the prestigious "Premier Prix du Piano", and prizes in top international competitions, including the Marguerite Long-Jacques Thibaud (in Paris) and the Ferruccio Busoni (in Bolzano), quickly followed. Gülsin Onay's subsequent, truly international career has spanned 80 countries across all continents, from Venezuela to Japan. She has given concerts in the major musical centres of the world such as Amsterdam's Concertgebouw, the Berlin Philharmonic Hall, the Vienna Konzerthaus, London's Queen Elizabeth Hall and Wigmore Hall, the Salle Gaveau in Paris, the Washington DC National Gallery of Art and the New York Miller Theater. She has performed as a soloist with such leading orchestras as Dresden Staatskapelle, Philharmonia Orchestra, English Chamber Orchestra, Royal Philharmonic, Japan Philharmonic, Munich Radio Symphony, St Petersburg Philharmonic, Tokyo Symphony, Warsaw Philharmonic and Vienna Symphony Orchestras. Conductors with which she has performed include Vladimir Ashkenazy, Erich Bergel, Michael Boder, Andrey Boreyko, Jorg Faerber, Vladimir Fedoseyev, Edward Gardner, Neeme Jarvi, Emmanuel Krivine, Ingo Metzmacher, Esa-Pekka Salonen, Jose Serebrier, Vassily Sinaisky, Stanislaw Wislocki and Lothar Zagrosek. Since 2003 she has been a "Goodwill Ambassador" for UNICEF, and regularly gives charity concerts to support and publicise their activities.

In 2006, Erdem was a prize winner in the International Rachmaninov Competition for Young Pianists, held in the composer's birth place, and was also awarded the Keyboard Instrument Prize at GSMD. In 2008 he won the Principal's prize at GSMD and was the piano winner of BBC Young Musician of the Year. British-Turkish pianist Erdem Misirlioglu is in demand as a solo recitalist, chamber musician and concerto soloist. In 2011, Erdem was awarded 1st prize in the Beethoven Piano Society of Europe's intercollegiate piano competition. A passionate chamber musician, Erdem is also a member of "Trio Isimsiz", a piano trio formed with friends at GSMD. In 2015, they won first prize and the audience prize in the Trondheim International Chamber Competition.

A graduate of Maestro Pinchas Zukerman's prestigious violin class, Emre has won a number of awards including the 2012 International Istanbul Music Festival 'Young Soloist of the Year', 'Best Emerging Artist' by Donizetti Classical Music Awards and 1st prize at the Ilhan Ozsoy Presidential Violin Competition, among others. Since completing his bachelor's degree at the Royal College of Music his master's degree at the Manhattan School of Music on a full scholarship, he recently earned his doctoral degree from the State University of New York, Stony Brook University Music Department.

Emre has been regularly performing with orchestras such as Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra, BBC NOW, Royal Scottish National Orchestra as well as being a fellow member of the 1st violin section at the English National Opera since 2021.

Talent Unlimited is a charity which does not spend any money on administration, all work is done on a volunteer basis. Therefore any financial support is reserved for our musicians' educational needs. We encourage eminent musicians to waive their fees to help us raise funds by giving concerts and masterclasses. As a business based in the UK, or elsewhere, you could be one of our sponsors, either as a charity as a whole or specific artist(s) you choose to provide financial assistance during their education. There are various ways you can support us.

Talent Unlimited is a young charity that provides financial support to music students of exceptional talent but limited means. Talent, past performance and financial background are taken into consideration when assessing those who are selected for help. Talent Unlimited, through its donations, concerts, conferences and other events aims at creating an environment conducive to the development of young musical talent.
